CLASSWORK: CLAIM/COUNTERCLAIM RESPONSE

Directions: Write a 2-paragraph "claim/counterclaim" response to the question "Was the French Revolution a success or a failure?" Defend your argument using details from the information provided and your knowledge of world history. This is not a full essay, so there's no introduction and conclusion. Just write one paragraph supporting your claim, and a 2nd paragraph acknowledging (but refuting) the counter-claim. [Refute means to prove false.] Consider these questions as you develop your claim: 1) What were the values and goals of the revolution? 2) Did the revolution achieve its goals, or not? Your response is due at the end of class. It cannot be made up later!
