

HOMEWORK (week of 10/6/14)Unit 2 Reading Assignment – You are expected to read textbook pages 640-691 by the end of the unit.

Mon, 10/6	HW8: Read excerpts from The Declaration of Independence and John Locke's Two Treatises on Government (on website). Imagine you are the author of the Declaration, Thomas Jefferson. Write a letter (at least one full page) to John Locke thanking him for the inspiration and explaining how you used his ideas. For full credit, you must include at least one quote from each document to explain exactly how you used his ideas. Due Wed. 10/8.
Tue, 10/7	Continue work on HW8
Wed, 10/8	HW9: Read excerpt from A Tale of Two Cities by Charles Dickens (on website). Write a diary entry (at least one full page) in which you summarize the events after the reception from the point of view of either the Marquis, Defarge, or one of the people in the crowd. Due Friday.
Thu, 10/9	Continue work on HW9
Fri, 10/10	HW10: Read excerpt from A Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen (on website). Answer all questions. Due Tue. 10/14. Make sure your notebook is ready for Notes Check on Tue 10/14. I will be checking Notes 1.1-1.8 and Notes 2.1.

HOMEWORK (week of 10/6/14)Unit 2 Reading Assignment – You are expected to read textbook pages 640-691 by the end of the unit.

Mon, 10/6	HW8: Read excerpts from The Declaration of Independence and John Locke's Two Treatises on Government (on website). Imagine you are the author of the Declaration, Thomas Jefferson. Write a letter (at least one full page) to John Locke thanking him for the inspiration and explaining how you used his ideas. For full credit, you must include at least one quote from each document to explain exactly how you used his ideas. Due Wed. 10/8.
Tue, 10/7	Continue work on HW8
Wed, 10/8	HW9: Read excerpt from A Tale of Two Cities by Charles Dickens (on website). Write a diary entry (at least one full page) in which you summarize the events after the reception from the point of view of either the Marquis, Defarge, or one of the people in the crowd. Due Friday.
Thu, 10/9	Continue work on HW9
Fri, 10/10	HW10: Read excerpt from A Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen (on website). Answer all questions. Due Tue. 10/14. Make sure your notebook is ready for Notes Check on Tue 10/14. I will be checking Notes 1.1-1.8 and Notes 2.1.

HOMEWORK (week of 10/6/14)Unit 2 Reading Assignment – You are expected to read textbook pages 640-691 by the end of the unit.

Mon, 10/6	HW8: Read excerpts from The Declaration of Independence and John Locke's Two Treatises on Government (on website). Imagine you are the author of the Declaration, Thomas Jefferson. Write a letter (at least one full page) to John Locke thanking him for the inspiration and explaining how you used his ideas. For full credit, you must include at least one quote from each document to explain exactly how you used his ideas. Due Wed. 10/8.
Tue, 10/7	Continue work on HW8
Wed, 10/8	HW9: Read excerpt from A Tale of Two Cities by Charles Dickens (on website). Write a diary entry (at least one full page) in which you summarize the events after the reception from the point of view of either the Marquis, Defarge, or one of the people in the crowd. Due Friday.
Thu, 10/9	Continue work on HW9
Fri, 10/10	HW10: Read excerpt from A Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen (on website). Answer all questions. Due Tue. 10/14. Make sure your notebook is ready for Notes Check on Tue 10/14. I will be checking Notes 1.1-1.8 and Notes 2.1.